

EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN FAQ

WHAT DOES UNITED WAY DO?

United Way of Utah County supports Utah County children in three areas

1

EVERYDAY LEARNERS

Early Education

Helps childhood literacy through early learning and education

2

EVERYDAY STRONG

Social and Emotional Health

Helps children and youth with anxiety and depression

3

EVERYDAY SUPPORT

Financial Stability

Helps individuals and families become financially stable

WHAT IS EVERYDAY STRONG?

EveryDay Strong is United Way's social and emotional health initiative to support children and youth with anxiety and depression. Our work in this area includes services like: Resilience Trainings for parent and teachers, parent support specialists with postpartum resources, and mental health treatment services through our partner agencies.

WHAT IS EVERYDAY SUPPORT?

EveryDay Support is United Way's financial stability initiative. Our work in this area includes programs like: the Utah 211 information line, free tax preparation, and programs to help alleviate housing, affordable healthcare and food needs.

WHAT IS EVERYDAY LEARNERS?

EveryDay Learners is United Way's early education initiative, with a strong emphasis on childhood literacy. Our work in this area includes programs like: parenting classes, after-school and summer learning programs at the South Franklin Community Center, and youth mentoring.

HOW IS MY DONATION USED? WHAT PERCENT OF MY DONATION GOES TO THE PROGRAM?

100% of your donations to United Way of Utah County goes directly to support local programs in Utah County. If you direct your gift to a United Way partner agency or other nonprofit, 100% of your donation is directed to that organization. Donations not directed to another nonprofit are used wherever they are needed most in the community to support early education, social and emotional health, and financial stability through United Way programs and partner agencies.

HOW CAN I RECEIVE ASSISTANCE?

If you or a loved one are looking for food, healthcare, housing assistance, etc. call 211 or download the 211 Utah App.

If you would like to access free resources like the EveryDay Strong Resilience Training or Help Me Grow Utah child development questionnaires, visit unitedwayuc.org to learn more.
